

Ruiz 4 Kids
POLICIES

Introduction to Policies

“What matters is that R4K’s leaders make a concerted effort to develop policies and practices that help the board and, in turn, the organization, to deliver on its mission.”

Policies are written rules, statements, principles, or directives for making decisions and taking action. These policies have been adopted by the Ruiz 4 Kids board to serve as a guide when the board carries out its governance duties and while staff conducts the organization’s daily operations. The Ruiz 4 Kids policies also establish a standard and recommended way of acting in challenging situations. They function as a protective mechanism for the organization and for individuals when a decision is questioned; those responsible can explain how they reached their conclusion by pointing to an approved policy that was followed. The Ruiz 4 Kids policies are also tools for setting priorities, making decisions, and defining and delegating responsibilities.

The Ruiz 4 Kids Policies consist of four broad policy areas, within which more specific policies are nested:

- 1) “Ends” policies—mission related and serve as a long-range plan.
- 2) “Executive Limitations” policies defining boundaries for staff activity.
- 3) “Board-Executive Linkage” policies clarifying the way to board delegates authority to the executive director.
- 4) “Board Process” policies dealing with how the board governs itself.

Certain policies are covered by Ruiz 4 Kids parent company, Ruiz Foods. Please refer to Ruiz Foods policies as pertains to:

- Personnel (grievances, anti-discrimination, sexual harassment)
- Whistleblower Protection
- Executive Director Job Description
- Crisis Communication

Ruiz 4 Kids Policies have been developed within the framework provided by BoardSource, Washington, DC., a national organization dedicated to improving the effectiveness of nonprofits by strengthening their boards of directors.

STATEMENT OF PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

It is the intent of Ruiz 4 Kids to strive for the highest ethical conduct from all board and staff. The leadership is particularly sensitive to individuals who hold management and governance positions of trust and confidence in fulfilling the mission and goals of the organization. These sensitive positions include officers, key senior staff members designated by the chief executive, and members of the board.

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

Any information about Ruiz 4 Kids and its applicants, grantees, donors, prospective donors, and any personal information about employees or other confidential information obtained by board, staff, and consultants as a result of working with the organization should be considered confidential and should be discussed only as appropriately required in connection with the organization's work. All information concerning an applicant, grantee, donor, prospective donor, or other confidential information must be maintained in confidence, and particular care must be taken to avoid discussion of organization affairs with third parties, unless authorization to do so is obtained from the chief executive, or as required by law.

All files, documents, and working papers of the organization are the property of the organization. Any board member, staff member, or consultant who purposely, or through a failure to exercise reasonable care, causes confidential information to be disclosed will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination. The obligation to keep information confidential continues after an employee, board member, or consultant ceases to be employed by or affiliated with the organization.

It is the policy of the organization not to give out staff or committee member's personal addresses or phone numbers to outside persons (with the exception of the Ruiz Foods human resource department's dealings with benefit providers). Anyone asking for personal information on staff or committee members should be instructed to forward all calls, mailings, or invitations to the Ruiz Foods human resource office.

CONFLICT-OF-INTEREST POLICY AND PROCEDURES FOR THE BOARD

Each member of the board of Ruiz 4 Kids has a duty of loyalty to Ruiz 4 Kids. In furtherance of this duty, it is the policy of Ruiz 4 Kids that directors may not use their position as directors for personal, family, or professional gain. Directors may not obtain for themselves, their relatives, or their friends a financial or material interest of any kind from their connection with Ruiz 4 Kids. Each director has a duty to give undivided allegiance to Ruiz 4 Kids when making decisions affecting Ruiz 4 Kids and in any transactions, dealings, or situations involving Ruiz 4 Kids. In furtherance of these obligations, Ruiz 4 Kids has adopted this Conflict-of-Interest Policy and Procedures applicable to its directors.

Conflict-of-Interest Transactions

A conflict of interest with respect to a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the organization means the interest a director has respecting such transaction, if:

1. The director knows that he or she or a related person is a party to the transaction or has a beneficial financial or personal interest in or is so closely linked to the transaction and it is of such financial or personal significance to the director or a related person that the interest would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director's judgment if he or she were called upon to vote on the transaction; or
2. The director knows that any of the following persons is either a party to the transaction or has a financial or personal interest in or is so closely linked to the transaction and it is of such financial or personal significance to the person that the interest would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director's judgment if he or she were called upon to vote on the transaction:
 - a. An entity of which the director is a director, officer, partner, equity owner, agent, or employee;
 - b. A person that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, one or more of the entities described in subsection (a); or
 - c. An individual who is a partner, principal, employer, employee, personal friend, business associate, or a significant creditor or debtor of the director.

For purposes of this Policy, a “related person” of a director means 1) the spouse of the director, or a parent or sibling thereof, or a child, grandchild, sibling, or parent of the director, or the spouse of any thereof, or an individual having the same home as the director, or a trust or estate of which an individual specified in this paragraph is a substantial beneficiary, or 2) a trust, estate, incompetent, conservatee, or minor of which the director is a fiduciary.

Examples of situations in which conflicts of interest may arise include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Transactions with persons and organizations supplying goods and commercial services to Ruiz 4 Kids
- Transactions with persons and organizations from which Ruiz 4 Kids leases property and equipment
- Transactions with persons and organizations with whom Ruiz 4 Kids is dealing or planning to deal in connection with the gift, purchase, or sale of real estate, securities, or other property
- Transactions with persons representing competing or collaborating organizations
- Transactions with donors and others supporting Ruiz 4 Kids
- Transactions with persons representing agencies, organizations, and associations that affect the operations of Ruiz 4 Kids
- Transactions with organizations or individuals receiving grants from Ruiz 4 Kids

Conflict-of-Interest Relationships

Ruiz 4 Kids recognizes that conflicts of interest may arise not only in the context of a transaction but also in situations where a director’s personal interests, or the interests of a related person, personal friend, business associate, an entity in which a member holds an equity interest, employer, employee, or a significant creditor or debtor of the director, could reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director’s judgment regarding general Ruiz 4 Kids matters and/or impair his or her ability to act in Ruiz 4 Kids’ best interests.

It is important to note that a “conflict of interest” exists if a decision could be influenced (i.e., perceived conflict of interest) — it is not necessary that influence actually take place.

Structural Conflicts of Interest

Procedures for Identifying and Addressing Conflicts of Interest

The following procedures shall be followed when a conflict of interest arises with respect to any director:

1. The director must promptly make full disclosure of the conflict of interest to the qualified directors of the board. The director must disclose (a) the existence and nature of the director’s conflict of interest and (b) all facts known to him or her regarding the subject matter of the transaction or situation that an ordinarily prudent person would reasonably believe to be material to a judgment about whether or not to proceed with the transaction or how to deal with the situation.
2. For purposes of this policy, a “qualified director” means any director who does not have either (a) a conflict of interest with respect to the transaction or situation, or (b) a familial, financial, professional, or employment relationship with a second director who does have a conflict of interest with respect to the transaction or situation, which relationship would, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the first director’s judgment when voting on the transaction or situation.
3. The qualified directors will discuss the conflict of interest and, depending on the nature of the conflict of interest, vote on either (a) whether or not to continue the transaction at issue or (b) measures to address the situation at issue. Directors subject to a conflict of interest shall not be permitted to be present or to participate in the deliberations or vote of the qualified directors with respect to such conflict of interest. Recusal of the director shall require such director to physically remove himself or herself from a meeting, conference call, e-mail, listserv, or any other electric communications.

4. The conflict of interest transaction or situation shall be approved only upon the affirmative vote of a majority, but no fewer than four (4) of those qualified directors on the board or on a duly empowered committee of the board (who voted on the transaction after required disclosure to them); provided, that action by a committee is effective only if (a) all committee members are qualified directors, and (b) committee members are either all the qualified directors on the board or are appointed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the qualified directors on the board. A majority, but no fewer than four (4) of all the qualified directors on the board, or on the committee, constitutes a quorum for purposes of the vote described above.

5. When a conflict exists, resolution of the matter may include (a) approving or disapproving any transaction or situation at issue; (b) requiring the director to remove himself or herself from positions in which the conflict of interest exists until there is no longer a conflict; or (c) requiring the director to discontinue, reduce, or modify his or her participation in the board, committees, or task forces where the conflict exists.

6. In addition to the procedures described above, directors have an obligation to address any perceived conflict of interest of other directors if they are aware of such conflicts with respect to matters pertaining to Ruiz 4 Kids.

Acknowledgment and Annual Disclosure

Directors will receive this Conflict-of-Interest Policy and Procedures and shall be required to sign and date the policy disclosure form at the beginning of their term of service. Directors also shall be required to sign and update the policy disclosure form at the beginning of each calendar year. Failure to update or sign the policy disclosure form, however, does not nullify a director's obligations under this policy.

2. I am fiscally responsible, with the other board members, for this organization. It is my duty to know what our budget is, to be active in planning that budget, and planning the fundraising to meet that budget.
3. I am legally responsible, along with other board members, for this organization.
